PARTICIPATION

According to the Polish Orienteering Association rules, every competitor who wishes to participate in competitions ranked in polish ranking has to prove that they have a valid license issued by Polish Orienteering Association in order to compete for polish ranking points. Lack of such licence does not interfere with taking part in Baltic Junior Cup Tour, that competition is open for every participant.

All participants are required to have been checked medically before the competition and have been cleared for taking part in sports competitions. Partakers who can't verify that they have been cleared by a doctor, have to state that they are taking part in the Baltic Junior Cup Tour in own responsibility.

PUCHNING SYSTEM

The Baltic Junior Cup Tour competition will be held using the SportIdent electronic confirmation system. It is possible to rent an SI chip from the Organizer. This should be indicated in the application. The SportIdent AIR+ contactless checkpoint confirmation system will be used during the competition.
